

The 1st Annual Conference of the

International Yeats Society

A Writer Young and Old:
Yeats at 150

This first meeting of the newly formed International Yeats Society features scholars, teachers, and writers from nearly twenty countries, to discuss topics relevant to the study of Ireland's national poet. In addition to academic panels and plenary lectures, the conference will feature the launch of the Gilsenan Collection of rare Yeats materials at the Glucksman Library; a new Hungarian production of the dance play At the Hawk's Well, with newly composed music and choreography; a concert featuring members of the Irish World Academy of Music and Dance; a poetry reading by award-winning Irish poet Caitríona Ní Chléirchín; and a post-conference bus tour of Yeats's tower Thoor Ballylee, and Coole Park. Come join us as we initiate a new phase of Yeats studies.

Plenary Speakers:

Matthew Campbell

(University of York)

Marjorie Howes

(Boston College)

Alexandra Poulain

(University of Lille)

15–18 October 2015

School of Culture and Communication

*Scoil an Chultúir agus na
Cumarsáide*

University of Limerick

Ollscoil Luimnigh

Limerick, Ireland

Helen O'Toole, Impression

www.internationalyeatsociety.org